Commissioner for Patents

The last non-final office action mailed in the above application has been vacated from the record and does not require a response from the applicant/attorney. The application will be reviewed by a new examiner with a new office action forthcoming. If the applicant/attorney has responded to the last office action before receiving this notice the next action by the examiner will be a notice of allowance or a non-final office action. If you have any questions regarding this notice please call John Weiss at 703-308-2702.
